CAMPAIGNING FOR CANNON

The Manufacturers Put His Election Through in 1908, Says Mulhall

AN EFFORT TO BRIBE GOMPERS

Described by Witness to the Senate Committee Yesterday

Washington, July 19.—Martin M. Mulhall yesterday told the Senate lobby investigating committee the story of an alleged effort in 1907-08 to bribe Samuel Gompers to desert the labor cause and support the policies advocated by the National Association of Manufacturers.

Mulhall admitted he had no positive information an attempt to bribe Gompers had been actually made, but said Atherton Brownell of New York had outlined the plan to him and told him what was to be done.

The plan was to have Gompers sign some sort of a document that would insure his future action, Mulhall thought, but the plan did not work.

During the hearing, Mulhall made an unexpected outburst, declaring officers of the National Association of Manufacturers were trying to "stare him out of countenance" during his testimony.

How the National Association of Manufacturers proposed to concentrate its energies for the re-election of former Speaker Cannon in the 1908 campaign, was described in one of the first of the "Mulhall letters" brought before the committee yesterday.

Mulhall testified that he had confessed to the committee that he had been a lobbyist for the manufacturers, was about one-third through his stack of correspondence when the committee resumed.

The letter bearing on Cannon was written to Mulhall by Secretary Schwedman of the manufacturers on Aug. 18, 1908, and declared all energies would be concentrated in Cannon's district "if there is the slightest occasion for it."

A letter from Mulhall to former Representative Loudenlager of New Jersey, said the manufacturers had field workers out in the campaign in many New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Indiana districts.

Senator Reed questioned Mulhall about Representative Bartholdt.

"I always understood Schwedman and Van Clave looked after Bartholdt, and that the brewery interests helped," replied Mulhall.

The committee decided to immediately hear S. W. McClave, Republican candidate for Congress in the sixth New Jersey district, where a special session is to be held Tuesday.

Mulhall testified Thursday that he ran McClave's campaign against William Hughes in 1910.

McClave wired Senator Cummings yesterday he would leave Jersey City at noon and the committee decided to hear him as soon as he reached Washington.

The cross-examination of Mulhall on McClave Thursday aroused the ire of the two Republican members of the committee, who declared it was an attempt to play politics.

Schwedman wrote Mulhall Aug. 26 about the situation in Indiana, which he said was "very critical" and added: "If we win, most of the credit will be due to your good work. If some of our political friends should forget it later on I want to take a trip with you into Indiana for the specific purpose of laying these good people over our knees and giving them the kind of a spanking they ought to have."

In August a fight in the eleven Wisconsin district, where John Perkins was up for re-election, apparently was worrying the manufacturers, although the National Brewers' association, through its national chairman, wrote Mulhall it was "never a fight."

Edward Hines, the Chicago lumber man who figured in the Lorimer case, came into the hearing again yesterday. Mulhall swore that in a letter to the manufacturers Aug. 27, Hines spoke of a promise to send $1,000 to go "into the right channel to be used for legitimate purposes" in the Jenkins district.

FACE BROKE OUT IN RED SPOTS

Blotchy All Over. Became Scaly. Scratched Until Made Them Bleed. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face and Head Cured.

24 Gilbert St., New Britain, Conn.—"My little boy's face used to get awful red and sometimes when I used to wash it it would bleed. Then it got blotchy all over and was horrid looking. His face broke out in red spots and then became scaly. He used to scratch them until he would make them bleed. Then his head started to break out. He was restless at night and complained of his face being sore. His head was all little cuts from scratching it."

"So I thought I would send for a sample of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I only used them for a few days when there was such a change in his looks. His face began to get clear. When the sample was gone I got one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I washed his face with the Cuticura Soap and warm water every night and morning and applied the Cuticura Ointment for four weeks and his face was cured. I got another cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and was only using them for two weeks and they made his scalp nice and clean. His head was cured." (Signed) Mrs. Isabelle Guenther, May 26, 1913.

For treating poor complexion, red, rough hands, and dry, thin, falling hair, Cuticura Soap and Ointment have been the world's favorite for more than a generation. A single set is often sufficient. Sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who share and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

CIGAR SMOKING WOMEN'S NEW FAD

Ultra-Modern Society Dames of London Prefer Them to Cigarettes—More Soothing to Her Nerves.

London, July 18.—When women soothe her nerves now with tobacco it is not a cigarette she chooses, but a cigar if she wants to appear quite up to date. The majority of women nowadays smoke cigarettes, but the ultra-modern members of the fair sex are taking to cigars—even pipes.

The pipe chosen especially for women, said a Piccadilly tobacconist, is a little light wooden pipe called the "Belgique," which costs a dollar. Pipes, however, are not so much "the vogue" at present as the cigar, and the favorite cigar which women smoke, it seems, is a long thin one which costs 50 cents.

A woman well known in club life says that in both literary and social women's clubs it is no uncommon sight to see women smoking cigars. The woman pipe devotee, however, does not parade her newly acquired habit in public as yet, but in the privacy of her own she confesses that she "loves one."

"Why don't you smoke a pipe?" men for a long time have been saying as a pet jest to women cigarette smokers, and now women have taken men seriously and copied their "bad example."

Any day now one can see beautifully dressed women in open automobiles smoking cigarettes in Piccadilly and in the most fashionable London streets. Every evening women are to be seen smoking as they drive to dinner or to the theatre in the west end.

VATICAN GUARDS IN OPEN MUTINY

They Notify Merry del Val That They Won't Serve Under Their Present Commander.

Rome, July 19.—For the second time within a week the famous Swiss guards, attached to the Vatican, mutinied yesterday. The cause of the outbreak is their objection to the rigid military discipline imposed by Captain Glasco, who is in temporary command of the guards. Colonel Repond, an uncle of Captain Glasco, is regularly in command of the Vatican guard, but was recently married and is now spending his honeymoon in Switzerland. The guards openly mutinied against the domination of Captain Glasco yesterday and notified Cardinal Merry del Val that they would not go on duty of any sort until he consented to the removal of Glasco from command, pending Colonel Repond's return.

McNAB DEBATE CHECKED.

Investigation Resolution Is Tabled in the House Without Discussion.

Washington, July 19.—A general flow of oratory on the subject of the Diggs-Caminetti-McNab imbroglio in California was dammed up early yesterday in the House. Although there had been an understanding that the Caminetti case was to open for discussion yesterday and a half dozen members had prepared speeches, Representative Byrnes of Tennessee carried a motion to lay the McNab investigation resolution on the table without debate, practically all of the Democrats voting to close the discussion.

Answer The Call

Barre People Have Found That This Is Necessary.

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench, a little cause may hurt the kidneys. Spells of backache often follow. Or some irregularity of the urine. A splendid remedy for such attacks. A medicine that has satisfied thousands.

Is Doan's Kidney Pills, a special kidney remedy. Many Barre people rely on it. Here is Barre proof.

Mrs. May Bond, 58 Elm street, Barre, Vt., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were first brought to my attention when I read in the local paper how citizens of Barre had been cured of kidney trouble by them. At the time I had sharp twinges of pain across the small of my back. I knew that these were caused by weak kidneys, so I got Doan's Kidney Pills and used them as directed. From the first they did me good and soon I was cured of the trouble."

WOMAN IS RIDDEN BY WOMEN ON RAIL

Carried Her Quarter of Mile and Dumped Her Into Mud Pond and Told Her to Leave Town.

Waukegan, Ill., July 19.—Swearing that he will put every one implicated in the affair behind the bars, John H. Richardson, storekeeper at Volo, Ill., yesterday sought warrants for the arrest of fifty women who kidnapped his wife, rode her on a rail through the main street of the town and then dumped her in a mud pond.

"They are witches!" screamed the invalid merchant from his wheel chair yesterday, "every one of them. There was nothing wrong between my wife and my brother. We were all just a little family. They've driven her away from me, for good."

News of the action of the women vigilantes was guarded as a secret in the little village for two days. It became known when Richardson came to Waukegan, placed a $1,500 mortgage on his store and gave the money to his wife, who boarded a train for Chicago. His brother-in-law, Will Tunhill, has left Volo and his whereabouts are unknown.

The strongest woman of the village was selected "captain" of the vigilantes. She pounced upon Mrs. Richardson while she was alone in her home and dragged her to the crowd of women outside.

The women placed the storekeeper's wife on a fence rail. Her clothes were partially stripped from her body and she was pelted with mud and stones. Then jeering and screaming, the women carried her a quarter of a mile through the principal street, dumped her in the mud pond and ordered her to leave town.

The women returned to the Tunhill residence to look for the man in the case. Several of their husbands had promised to get Tunhill intoxicated but he refused to drink. When the women arrived he had left the house.

Mrs. Richardson came to Waukegan yesterday after remaining in hiding since the rail episode. She met her husband here and Richardson says he gave her $1,500 and she left for Chicago.

The women said to have been members of the party yesterday denied all knowledge of the affair.

SENDS "DOLL" WIFE TO RICH RELATIVES

Husband, Seeking Divorce, Declares He Can't Keep Silver Spoon in Her Mouth.

Pittsburg, July 19.—Declaring that his wife had been born with a silver spoon in her mouth, and that he had grown tired trying to keep it there, F. W. Lego, a prominent merchant here, brought suit yesterday for an absolute divorce against Mary Wendel Lego.

Lego declared that he was weary of hearing his wife say that she could go to her rich relatives and not be forced to account for anything. On July 1, he says, he told her to hurry to them, as he was tired of keeping a "doll" around his home.

Lego said yesterday: "My wife has been reared with a silver spoon in her mouth, and I, like a fool, have been trying for several years to keep it there. She would do nothing and must be waited on continually. She would spend every dollar I could get my hands on, and continually nagged for more."

"I suppose she has gone to her relatives, and I hope they enjoy ministering to her whims better than I do. I've had all the silver spoon business I want."

WAGGENER ALL RIGHT.

Millionaire Entertains Twenty Thousand Children.

Atchison, Kan., July 17.—Twenty thousand children were guests yesterday of Balle F. Waggener, a millionaire railroad man at his annual picnic. All the expenses, even including railroad fare to Atchison are borne by Mr. Waggener. Entertainment provided includes a distribution of toys and flowers, automobile parades, land and water athletic contests, baseball games, exhibition drill by the United States troops from Fort Leavenworth and day and night fireworks.

Governor Hodges and staff and three companies of the Kansas National Guard were here for the outing.

SAILORS AND MARINES RIOT.

They Start to Clean Up the Town at Seattle.

Seattle, Wash., July 16.—A party of United States marines and sailors from the Pacific reserve fleet, most of the sailors wearing name bands of the cruisers Colorado and California, started last night to "clean up the town," as they expressed it, by attacking the Socialist and Industrial Workers of the World headquarters.

HUERTA RETIREMENT MEANS REVOLUTION

That Is What Prevents Thousands of Representative Mexican Business Men from Petitioning Huerta to Yield.

Mexico City, July 19.—Only the conviction that the retirement of President Huerta means the elevation of another revolutionist and the plunging of their country into greater depths of hopelessness, prevents thousands of representative Mexican business men from uniting in a petition to the existing administration to yield. Many of these business men believe that only foreign intervention can restore peace, but expression of such opinions is not popular and are made guardedly or with due reservation.

Overthrow of Huerta by any of the rebellious forces probably would mean succession to the presidency of Carranza, Maytorena or Obregon or other leaders possessing so universal following such as could be depended on to stop rebellion.

CHILDLESS WOMEN

These women once childless, now happy and physically well with healthy children will tell how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made all this possible. Here are the names and correct addresses—write them if you want to, and learn for yourself. They are real, not imaginary thousands.
